RFCU SHARE SECURED MASTERCARD

Yes, it's a great way to establish credit, especially for high school grads bound for college or starting out in life. A share secured MasterCard provides additional funds for emergencies or daily expenses while establishing credit. Call or stop by our office for more information!

Destiny Kelley of McGregor High School was awarded RFCU 18th annual $1000 scholarship.

She is the daughter of Otha and Glorial Kelley. She received many academic awards during high school and participated as Class Representative, member of Student Council, National Honor Society, Leadership & Peer Assistance, and Spanish Club. She also was a cheerleader and participated in basketball, softball, and track where she received special recognition in each area. Destiny plans to attend Texas A&M in the fall and study pre-medicine and business. Congratulations to Destiny and best wishes.

AVOID THOSE EXTRA LATE FEES... It happens to the best of us. We forget to make an entry in our checkbook or record the wrong amount. Then we write a check or swipe our debit card for more than what we have in our share draft account. Wham! We over draw our account. RFCU offers Courtesy Pay and charges a fee in lieu of the customary service charge for an insufficient check. However, consider this; Courtesy Pay is not a substitute for keeping accurate calculations in your checkbook. Courtesy Pay saves a check from being returned and fees being charged by the merchant. You should always balance your account on a monthly basis and keep your balance current. Visit our website to balance your account and avoid any extra fees.

* Courtesy Pay, by application only and requires direct deposit. A fee of $25 for the payment of each overdraft created in check, ATM withdrawal or other electronic means when no other form of overdraft protection is available from other sources. Call or stop by for an application and requirements to see if Courtesy Pay is for you.
